SOUTH OF THE BORDER SALSA CONTEST RULES and REGULATIONS

Salsa Competition Rules

- Salsa Contest entries will be judged in one single round only. There will be no final round judging. Plaques will be awarded to the first two places in each category of Professional and Amateur. One additional 1st place plaque will be given to Peoples Choice – competition for this award is between both amateur and professional entries.
- All Participating restaurants must check in at the Salsa tasting tent between 9:00 am – 10:00 am Saturday, June 11th.
- Prepare one gallon of salsa. Please label your salsa with your name and restaurant name if applicable.
- No creators, assistant creators, restaurant employees, friends or family are allowed in judges tent or allowed to talk with judges. Any cohering with judges could lead to disqualification.
- Salsa Contest blind judging will be held at the Salsa Tasting tent. Late entries may be disqualified. Judging will commence exactly at 10:55 a.m. on Saturday.
- In case of a Tie: It will turn to a blind ballot vote.
- Judging of entry is based upon: appearance, flavor and overall impression.
- Results will be announced at 2pm Saturday, June 11th 2011
